STATESBORO, Ga. – With November officially in full swing the Georgia Southern men's tennis team has kicked off their annual No-Shave November Campaign. The Eagles will be collecting money through their team page, as well as home sporting events all November.

The goal of No-Shave November is to raise cancer awareness by forgoing shaving and embracing the hair that many cancer patients lose. Donating the extra money one would usually spend on grooming supplies to No-Shave November, will help provide information to cancer patients and their caregivers.
